

Sue Miller
Artist Statement

“I have always been inspired by landscape, not only for its obvious beauty, but for the many metaphors found in the joining of land, sky & water. In my paintings, there is always ground to plant one’s feet, water to be open to the rhythm of life & what the waves bring in, big sky for perspective, and always light on the horizon to keep one balanced & hopeful.”